Welcome to OCRA

OCRA (Ontario Colleges Retirees' Association) was established in 2001 by a small group of academic, administrative, and support staff retirees from several Ontario Colleges.

OCRA's Mission

OCRA's mission is to present a common position on issues of interest to OCRA members, including pension, health benefits, group insurance, as well as government policies and proposals.

OCRA's Priorities

- Build relationships with CAAT Pension Plan management and its associated sponsors.
- Review and report on news from organizations that serve the interests of OCRA members.
- Advocate for members on issues of concern about health and dental benefits as well as group insurance.
- Communicate with members via newsletters and the OCRA website.
- Support Ontario College retiree associations/clubs.
- Establish and maintain liaisons with various boards and agencies that benefit OCRA members.
- Provide opportunities for members to connect.

Join OCRA

OCRA's membership includes retirees (academic, administrative, support) from the 24 Ontario Colleges whose pension benefits are managed by the CAAT Pension Plan.

Currently, OCRA's membership numbers over 1,250.
